

The new VCE study design for Italian – looking back and looking forward

6th March 2020

Time: 9.30am - 3.30pm (Reg. from 8.30am)

Saxons Training Facilities

Level 6, 500 Collins Street, Melbourne

Matt Absalom has been teaching Italian for over 25 years. He is a university lecturer and researcher, author of secondary school textbooks of Italian, and an advocate of languages education. He is an accomplished public speaker and dynamic workshop facilitator and has worked with teachers of Italian and languages around Australia and internationally in numerous contexts for the past 20 years. As a language teacher himself, Matt spans both the theoretical and practical in his own work and will provide you with a wealth of ideas and materials to apply in your teaching practice.

Program Description

In this workshop, we will review some examples of school-based assessment that have been successful in this first year of implementation of the new study design for Italian. From 2020, units 3 and 4 will also follow this new study design. The workshop will give you an opportunity to take stock of what's already occurred in 2019 in units 1 and 2 in preparation for units 3 and 4 in 2020. I will propose a series of assessment tasks for each outcome of units 3 and 4 and you will have the opportunity to work with these as a way of developing further ideas in a guided context with your colleagues. You will come away from this full day event with a clearer idea of how to structure your assessment programs in units 1-4.

Target Audience: All VCE Italian teachers. 6 PD hrs
